In 15 countries on 5 continents...

Description:

First performed in 2002.

"Zanzibar le crazy French man can be seen throwing his three diabolos like rockets in the air or juggling three knives on a ten foot ladder! This orange and black frog entertains in French or in English with his outrageous accent. Danger, skills and comedy guaranteed!"

duration : 50 minutes

with Julien Bouley

Zanzibar is a circus artist and a street performer, who has a 20 years experience performing in 15 countries on 5 continents. The show combines comedy, juggling, object manipulation , balancing, danger and crowd interaction.

The act has been evolving for 17 years, the artist always improvise to keep the show alive and to keep the control of the performance's rythm.

Technically it's a real circus performance juggling 3 diabolos , high in the air or spinning on the string and also the grand finale juggling machetes ontop of a 10 ft circus ladder.

The aim of the show is to entertain, make laugh , impress and to get the audience involved. In order to do that the comedian uses all his expertise.
